THE MAGIC HOUSE AND MADE FOR KIDS HOST FREE FAMILY NIGHT

Free Opportunity set for February 18

ST LOUIS (February 7, 2022) – The Magic House, St. Louis Children's Museum and its satellite location, MADE for Kids hosts Free Family Nights every third Friday of the month from 5:00 to 8:00 pm. The next Free Family Night is scheduled for Friday, February 18 and is available for a family of up to two adults and four children to visit at no cost.

This special evening enables a family to enjoy all of the hands-on experiences at The Magic House including current exhibits Splash and Bubbles: Dive In, Lend a Fin! and Namaste India. Free Family Night at MADE for Kids gives guests the opportunity to paint on a digital easel, sculpt with clay, launch rockets and more.

Reservations for Free Family Night can be made online by visiting MagicHouse.org or by calling The Magic House at 314.822.8900 or MADE for Kids at 314.328.0561.

About The Magic House, St. Louis Children's Museum

The Magic House is a not-for-profit participatory museum that provides hands-on learning experiences that spark imagination, pique curiosity, enhance creativity and develop problem-solving skills within a place of beauty, wonder, joy and magic. Serving more than 550,000 visitors annually, The Magic House opened in 1979 and has 55,000 square feet of hands-on exhibits. In 2019, the Museum opened an all-new satellite makerspace in the City of St. Louis on Delmar Boulevard, located between the Central West End and the Delmar Loop. For additional information, please call or text 314.822.8900 or visit The Magic House online at www.magichouse.org.
