The Not-So-Haunted House that's Oh-So-Fun!

ST LOUIS (September 11, 2024) – Celebrate Halloween at The Magic House! Children of all ages are invited to dress in their most “boo-tiful” costumes and have a ghoulishly good time trick-or-treating and getting autographs from their favorite storybook characters at the Not-So-Haunted House!

Each child attending the event will receive a trick-or-treat bag and an autograph book as they enter the Museum. Plus, kids will participate in a scavenger hunt to find trick-or-treat locations throughout the Museum.

Not-So-Haunted House is free with Museum admission. Not-So-Haunted House is made possible thanks to the generous support of Schnucks.

Dates for Not-So-Haunted House:

- Friday, October 11 – Sunday, October 13
- Friday, October 18 – Sunday, October 20
- Friday, October 25 – Sunday, October 27

But the Halloween excitement does not end there!

MADE for Kids, The Magic House's satellite location, will once again host Halloween Spirit Week. Families are invited to come together and celebrate Halloween during a week-long adventure that promises unforgettable memories. Decorate mini pumpkins, create spider web suncatchers, design ghost parachutes and more!

Dates for Halloween Spirit Week:

- October 25 – 27
- October 28 – 31

Halloween Spirit Week at MADE for Kids is included with admission. MADE for Kids is located at 5127 Delmar Blvd. in St. Louis.

About The Magic House, St. Louis Children's Museum

The Magic House is a not-for-profit participatory museum that provides hands-on learning experiences that spark imagination, pique curiosity, enhance creativity and develop problem-solving skills within a place of beauty, wonder, joy, and magic. Serving more than 550,000 visitors annually, The Magic House opened in 1979 and has 55,000 square feet of hands-on exhibits. In 2019, the Museum opened an all-new satellite makerspace in the City of St. Louis on Delmar Boulevard, located between the Central West End and the Delmar Loop.
