The Magic House Hosts Wild Event with Serengeti Steve Squirmy, Slimy, Scaly, Slithery Creatures Kids Love

ST LOUIS (August 1, 2024) – Leapin’ lizards! On Saturday, August 17 from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm, The Magic House, St. Louis Children’s Museum is playing host to creatures big and small from a mighty python to a tiny gecko! At this fun event called Squirmy, Slimy, Scaly, Slithery Creatures Kids Love, visitors will have the opportunity to get close with a variety of reptiles and enjoy a thrilling presentation by Serengeti Steve, featuring some of his favorite critters and loads of audience participation! Performances will take place in the Museum’s Story Time Theater at 10:00 am, 11:00 am, 12:00 pm and 1:00 pm.

Additional educational reptile experiences will be provided by the St. Louis Herpetological Society, and the Missouri Department of Conservation. This event is free with Museum admission and no reservations are required. For more information, visit [\[insert new link\]](#)

About The Magic House, St. Louis Children’s Museum

The Magic House is a not-for-profit participatory museum that provides hands-on learning experiences that spark imagination, pique curiosity, enhance creativity and develop problem-solving skills within a place of beauty, wonder, joy, and magic. Serving more than 550,000 visitors annually, The Magic House opened in 1979 and has 55,000 square feet of hands-on exhibits. In 2019, the Museum opened an all-new satellite makerspace in the City of St. Louis on Delmar Boulevard, located between the Central West End and the Delmar Loop.
