Explore, Create, and Have Fun at Free Family Nights at MADE for Kids!

ST LOUIS (February, 21) – Looking for a fun, free, and creative experience for the whole family? Join us for Free Family Night at MADE for Kids, a satellite location of The Magic House, St. Louis Children's Museum. Here kids can explore new interests and passions through a variety of hands-on activities. From painting on a digital easel and sculpting clay creations to designing with a 3D printer, building robots, launching rockets, and more—all at no cost!

Every third Friday of the month from 5:00 to 8:00 pm, MADE for Kids invites families (up to two adults and four children) to explore its kids' makerspace for FREE. It is located in the heart of St. Louis' Makers District at 5127 Delmar Boulevard.

Free Family Nights are made possible by the generous sponsorship of McCarthy Building Companies, Inc., a subsidiary of McCarthy Holdings, Inc.

"MADE for Kids is an exciting hands-on experience brought to our community by the Magic House, and we are excited to support Free Family Night," commented McCarthy Holdings, Inc. Director, Sustainability Ian Pope. "At McCarthy we love to build and are proud to support this program for kids in our hometown."

Upcoming Free Family Nights:

- Friday, February 21
- Friday, March 21
- Friday, April 18
- Friday, May 16
